*President & CEO, Applicology Inc. &
Former Chief Technology Officer at the CIA*

Bob Flores is the Founder, President, and CEO of Applicology Incorporated, an independent consulting firm specializing in information technology issues.

Prior to this, Bob spent 31 years at the Central Intelligence Agency. While at CIA, Bob held various positions in the Directorate of Intelligence, Directorate of Support, and the National Clandestine Service. Toward the end of his career, Bob spent three years as the CIO's Chief Technology Officer where he was responsible for ensuring that the Agency's technology investments matched the needs of its mission. During this time Bob was also the Agency's representative on several government-wide information sharing committees and councils.

In addition to his senior level leadership and management positions, Bob's career included assignments in applications programming, training and education, contract and project management, and both line and staff management roles at various levels of the Agency. Bob earned several Exceptional Performance Awards throughout his career at CIA.

Bob holds Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in Statistics from Virginia Tech in 1975 and 1977 respectively. Bob is a Life Member of the Virginia Tech Rescue Squad and of the McLean, Va. Volunteer Fire Department. He resides in Vienna, Va. with Ellen, his wife — a Physician Assistant — and two daughters.
